

Exams

I'm an MME student, currently working in another city. I have been granted permission to only take exams and I am not required to attend classes. Can I just pass the final exam?

Unfortunately your permission does not extend to learning a language at the Centre of Foreign Languages. Students are obliged to attend classes full time and take the exam at the end of the semester.

You can be exempt from attending classes and/or the examination if you have a valid certificate at appropriate level. On our website there is a list of list of certificates on the basis of which you can be exempt from our courses and/or exams: <https://spnjo.uwr.edu.pl/en/b2-course/>

If you are not able to present a certificate you can take the Certificate B2+ exam, which is offered at our centre. This is an additional exam, not included in the course of studies, which means it is not free of charge and the candidates are obliged to pay a fee. The positive result of the exam is then recognised as your final exam grade and can be transferred to your faculty at your request.
